Sierra, Judy. (2000). The gift of the Crocodile: A Cinderella Story.

Indonesian Children's Favorite Stories. "Offers a taste of how universal values of bravery, cleverness, true love, kindness and loyalty are transmitted to Indonesian children. Astute princesses, resourceful villagers and daring travelers appear throughout. Retold for an international audience, these beautifully illustrated stories provide children with an insight into the traditional culture, morals and environment of Indonesia."

Indonesian Folktales

Indonesian folktales fall into three categories:

- Aesop's Fables type stories with an obvious moral and using animals to represent character traits, eg the kancil (pronounced kun-chill) stories

- Creative explanations for the existence of natural features in the environment, eg the 'Malin Kundang' (pronounced mah-leen koon-dung) story which tells of the existence of a rock resembling a kneeling man on the shore in Padang, Sumatra
- Stories that have a formulaic fairytale pattern, eg 'Keong Mas' (pronounced kay-ong mahs), the Golden Snail.

FICTION:

Dubois, The Twenty-One Balloons. Relates the incredible adventures of Professor William Waterman Sherman who in 1883 sets off in a balloon across the Pacific, survives the volcanic eruption of Krakatoa, and is eventually picked up in the Atlantic.

Fama, Elizabeth. Overboard (2002)

Escaping from a sinking ferry in the waters off Sumatra, fourteen-year-old Emily fights for survival for herself and a young Indonesian boy, who draws courage from his quiet but firm Islamic faith.

NON-FICTION:

Jaffe, Elizabeth. (2002) Marbles. Games Around the World Series also highlights marbles in Indonesia (kelereng)

Smith, Datus. The Land and People of Indonesia. A portrait of the Nation Series featuring culture of Indonesia.
