★★★★ Good for a hotel

It's not a hostel but a hotel with some dorm room. You won't find any social life here, period. You won't even get the dorm if you don't have a reservation. But I quite liked it as a hotel -- clean sizeable rooms, free open Wi-Fi in lobby, and big ass mirrors everywhere. Their hotel rooms are 60 euros per night, which seems quite high. Try it if you need a "hotel break" from hosteling or don't plan on seeing much in Milan -- or just have tons of luggage.
